

The Mid-Peninsula Recorder Orchestra

Spring Concert

Saturday, May 9, 2026, 7:00pm

Veterans Memorial Senior Center auditorium

1455 Madison Ave., Redwood City

Conducted by MPRO assistant director Greta Haug-Hryciw

- Selections include Vivaldi's Recorder Concerto in C (RV443), works by Schmelzer, Dufay, Josquin, Vejvanovsky, and more
- Other instruments joining the recorders are bassoon, English horn, baroque rackett, krumhorns, and keyboard
- This program features a very special appearance by local recorder quartet DJLD performing J.S. Bach's Lobet den Herrn (BWV230)

Admission is FREE

Families are welcome

Free-will donations are gratefully accepted

★ Established in 1962, MPRO was the first recorder orchestra in the U.S. and has been directed by Frederic Palmer since 1988. ★

<https://www.mpro-online.org/>

MPRO is an affiliate of the San Francisco Early Music Society (sfems.org)